DATA SCIENCE MASTER'S PROGRAM

Proposal Request for Capstone Experience in Data Science (EN.553.806/506)

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Complete this form, have it signed by your capstone supervisor** and upload it to the link on our capstone upload link.
- ** Your capstone project may involve working with a non-JHU entity and may have project collaborators who are not JHU faculty. However, all Data Science students MUST have a JHU faculty member as capstone supervisor, whose role is to supervise the overall project and monitor your progress.
  - ♦ If you are working with a non-JHU entity or a department within Johns Hopkins, you may be privy to sensitive data. It is your responsibility to check with your project collaborator (for non-JHU projects) and/or your JHU faculty capstone supervisor to ensure that you are able to share the results of your project with the Johns Hopkins community.
2. Register for EN.553.806 (it will show as pending approval). Undergraduate students must register for EN.553.506.
3. Once your proposal has been approved, your registration to the course will be approved by the department.

You must notify the department of any changes to your research focus, duties and responsibilities, or if you change the title of the capstone. Any changes may result in the need to re-review your proposal. If your capstone supervisor leaves Johns Hopkins University or is otherwise unable to continue to supervise your project, you MUST notify the Sr. Academic Program Coordinator immediately. All students are required to present a poster at the end of the semester and submit a final report to their capstone supervisor. No grade will be posted until both of these requirements have been met.
