ALUMNI UP FRONT
A Span Seven Decades Strong .......................................................... 2
Made-to-Order for Maryland ............................................................ 4

BACK ON CAMPUS
Candid Answers from CEOs ............................................................... 6
New Institute for Computational Medicine ........................................ 6
M.S. in Bioinformatics ....................................................................... 7

IN MEMORIAM
API's Legendary “Kossy”: Alexander Kossiakoff ’38 Ph.D. .............. 7
Prolific Researcher, Gifted Professor: Charles S. ReVelle ................. 7

FEATURE
One Giant Step Reaches Out to Schools .......................................... 8

CONNECTIONS
Way Outside the Box ....................................................................... 10

FEATURE
A New Gateway to Innovation ....................................................... 12
Charles Commons: Welcome to College Town ................................. 16

HISTORY FEATURE
90/25 Anniversary Album ................................................................ INSERT

LAB NOTES
Better Way to Biopsy ...................................................................... 18
What are the Chances ...................................................................... 20

HIGH PERFORMERS
In the Driver's Seat of a Single Cell ................................................. 22
The Proof of Truth in Numbers ........................................................ 24

THE WIDER WORLD
Circuit Completed ........................................................................... 26
“I Was Interested in Everything” ...................................................... 27

MAKING WAVES
A Shot in the Dark .......................................................................... 29
Before It's Too Late .......................................................................... 31
It Pays to Be Curious ....................................................................... 32

(Cover) In Machinery Hall, as part of Maryland Hall was known until the 1950s, young engineers in this 1938 photo are just as intent as these student researchers are today in the Corrsin Wind Tunnel (right). The insert in this issue offers more glimpses into nine decades of Engineering at Hopkins.